

OUR BELIEFS AND PRACTICES REGARDING THE LORD'S SUPPER

Holy Communion is a wonderful gift given by God to His church. Jesus began this sacred act and also commanded that His followers observe it regularly (1 Corinthians 11:23-25). In this supper, Jesus gives His true body and blood as we eat simple bread and drink simple wine. As He does this, He offers the forgiveness of our sins and the strengthening of our faith in Him (Matthew 26:28, 1 Corinthians 10:16; 11:27). These gifts are received through faith in Jesus Christ and are not given as the result of our actions. Rather they come by the promise of God. Holy Communion is a work of God. The celebration of Holy Communion is also a testimony to the unity that exists in a congregation of fellow believers (1 Corinthians 10:17). As we receive communion, we are also making a public statement that we believe, teach, and confess the same things that are taught from the altar at which we commune while at the same time acknowledging the responsibility that we have to care for one another in Christian love.

Like any gift, Holy Communion can be misused and actually cause harm to those who misuse it (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). God's Word teaches us that we are to examine ourselves before we receive communion. Among the questions that we should ask ourselves are: do I believe that Jesus is my savior (John 3:16-18), that He is truly present bodily in this sacrament, and am I in unity with the teachings of this altar and with those who commune here? If not and we receive the Lord's Supper anyway, we may receive the Lord's discipline (1 Corinthians 11:29ff). Under these circumstances, it would be better to wait to receive Holy Communion until such issues can be resolved.

A helpful list of additional questions for use in examining ourselves prior to receiving the Lord's Supper was prepared by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther. We commend it to your use. It can be found on pages 329-330 of the hymnal.

It is not possible to properly and fully address such a wonderful gift as Holy Communion in one simple card. So, if you have questions, are unsure about how to use this precious sacrament, or have not been instructed in the faith of the Lutheran Church as summarized in Luther's Small Catechism, please speak with our Pastor or an elder before communing.

WHAT'S GOING ON

So what do we do in Sunday School? Our Sunday School for children takes place in the church basement. At 9:30 am we gather in the large room for our Opening. Mrs. Abbi Taves presents highlights of the Bible story for the day along with a Bible Verse. An offering is taken before we go to the classrooms. Here we study the story again, practice the Bible Verse, and make a craft that highlights the story. In the classes for the younger children we learn to share toys, engage in play experiences and to cleanup after ourselves. The older children study the story in depth, practice memory work, and enjoy making a more elaborate craft. At 10:20 am we then gather as a group for Closing where we sing, dance, and celebrate our Baptismal birthdays, closing with prayer. Sunday School is FUN!

Don't put those costumes away yet! The children of our Sunday School are presenting a short Christmas program on December 22. We are looking for some angel wings and boys bath robes. If you have these items, leave them in the church office for Cathy Summers. Stay tuned, we may need some more things!

NOVEMBER HYMN OF THE MONTH: "Christ is Made the Sure Foundation" is this month's Hymn Of The Month written by John Mason Neale. He was born in London, England in 1818, the son of an Anglican clergyman. Raised solely by his mother from the age of five, he studied at Cambridge University and Wittenberg University and became a most prolific writer of poetry, hymns, essays and books. He was ordained in the Church of England. His evangelical leanings led him to establish two homes for retired elderly men and another for indigent women and orphans. He transcribed this hymn from an 8th Century Latin writing and firmly believed through the church social conditions could be improved and many brought to Christ. Neale claimed no rights to his texts and was pleased that his translations could contribute to hymnody as "common property of Christendom". He died in 1866. FOR MORE INFORMATION please view the music bulletin board located outside the nursery.

COLLEGE CARE BOXES. We are in need of cardboard boxes for mailing snacks to our college students this year. Boxes should be ABOUT 12" x 9" x 5". If you have boxes you can donate, please bring them to church and leave them in the Welcome Center. If you have questions, contact Laura Gray at 913-683-1438. Thank you in advance!

COLLEGE CARE PACKAGES Each year just before semester finals in December we send a treat to our college students to remind them their church family is thinking of them during those dreaded finals! We send a small box of snacks to the students living away from home and a gift card for a local snack treat to the students still at home. An orange box is located in the narthex for donations. Favorites include granola bars, crackers, fruit bites, gum, cookies, breakfast bars, popcorn, and candy – anything that is individually wrapped. Please bring your donations no later than Wednesday, November 27. We understand it is difficult for many people to bring donations to church, if you prefer to make a cash donation, we will shop for you. Make your check out to Trinity and write College Care on the memo line. Your donation also helps cover the cost of gift cards and postage.

Parents – Let us know if you have a child in college either at home or away at school so we can include them in the mailing. Also, be sure to update your child's school/home address. Contact Laura Gray in the Welcome Center or at lgray2314@gmail.com, or call Sheri in the church office at 682-7474.

STEWARDSHIP

Isaiah 51:6 – “For the heavens vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment.” The things of this earth that hold our attention, that cause us worry, that tempt us away from the Lord, are all passing away. They will vanish like a garment. They are not for us to worry over, but rather to use for the Lord's purposes. The things of this world are not ends in and of themselves, but only means to be used wisely by the children of the kingdom that has no end.

Postlude

We had another successful Dillons food drive Saturday, November 2. We collected 8-10 trunk fulls of groceries and $400.00 in cash donations. A big thank you to everyone who helped!

Calling all youth for the most wonderful time of the year! Join us on Sunday, December 8 at 5:30pm for our annual Christmas party. We will meet at the church and eat a lasagna dinner together. Then we will play some fun games and exchange gifts. Please have a gift between $5 and $10 for our white elephant exchange. Bring a friend or two and a sweet treat to share. We should be finished by 7pm, in time for the Chiefs game! Hope to see you all there!

Christmas gifts for CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates). The bulletin board with tags of gifts wanted for the 20 children that we are collecting gifts for this year is up in the narthex. The goal is for each child to have an outfit and a toy or personal item that the child has requested. Any cash donations can support the CASA shoe fund or to purchase any unclaimed tag. Please select gift tags from the board and return your UNWRAPPED gifts to the box provided in the narthex along with the tag you removed from the board attached to the gift (this identifies the child that requested the item) by Sunday, December 1. Thank you in advance to everyone for helping these children in the CASA system to have gifts for Christmas.

LWML Hope Circle—Serve the Lord with Gladness (Psalm 100:2) Our annual Christmas party will be Monday, December 9 at Priscilla LoPresti's home at 2112 Ridgeview Drive in Leavenworth, beginning at 6:00 pm. A casserole is being provided and members are asked to bring a side dish or dessert to share. If you wish to participate in our gift exchange, you should bring a gift in the $10-$20 range. Please bring a Christmas card for your 2024 Prayer Partner to let them know who had them for this past year. If you cannot attend, please make sure you give the card to one of our members to take to the party for you. We hope to see all of our members at the party!
